

Name of the Programme	Course title	Semester	Module	GGC Points	Documentation
Language and International Studies, English	Introduction to International Studies: theories and methods	1 st semester, bachelor level	Introduction to International Studies: Theories and Methods	5	Documented by passed exam in the course (portfolio)
Language and International Studies, English	International Relations: theories and methods	3 rd semester, bachelor level	International Relations: Theories and Methods	5	Documented by passed exam in the course (portfolio)
Language and International Studies, English	The history of International Relations in the 20 th and 21 st centuries	3 rd semester, bachelor level	The History of International Relations in the 20 th and 21 st Centuries	5	Documented by passed exam in the course (portfolio)
Language and International Studies, English	Cultural globalization: theories and methods	4 th semester, bachelor level	Cultural globalization: theories and methods	5	Documented by passed exam in the course (portfolio)
Language and International Studies, English	International and intercultural communication	4 th semester, bachelor level	International and intercultural communication	5	Documented by passed exam in the course (portfolio)

Language and International Studies, English	Cultural analysis	4 th semester, bachelor level	Cultural analysis	5	Documented by passed exam in the course (take-home assignment)
Language and International Studies, English	International organizations	5 th semester bachelor level	International organizations	5	Documented by passed exam in the course (take-home assignment)
International Business Communication (English, German, Spanish)	Culture and Society (English, German, Spanish)	1 st semester bachelor level	Culture, Communication and Society	5	Documented by the passed 1 st semester's project examination
International Business Communication (English, German, Spanish)	Intercultural communication (English, German, Spanish)	2 nd semester bachelor level	Culture, Communication and Organisation	5	Documented by the passed 8th 2 nd semester's project examination

Note to students from the MA programme in Culture, Communication and Globalisation. As of August 2018 CCG students can no longer partake in the GGC programme. However, students already registered can claim points for the CCG courses in "Introduction to Intercultural Communication" and "Communication in Global Contexts".