

Reflections on Masculinities and Law

Professor of Law, Nancy E. Dowd from University of Florida and Professor of Law, Ann McGinley from William S. Boyd School of Law in Las Vegas are both visiting Aalborg University at the same time. In an upcoming seminar Dowd and McGinley will engage in a back and forth dialogue about their work. The seminar takes place:

Date and time: Friday October 25, from 9-11
Place: Fibigerstræde 1, room 37, Campus Aalborg

Organizers:

FREIA - The Gender Research Centre / Department of Politics and Society.

CeMAS - The centre for Masculinity Studies / Department of Sociology and Social Work.

THE SEMINAR IS OPEN TO EVERYONE

Nancy E. Dowd is David H. Levin Chair In Family Law, Professor of Law, Emeritus Director, Center on Children & Families. She is the author of The Man Question: Male Privilege and Subordination (2010) in which she explores masculinities theories as a means to expand gender analysis and also incorporate other hierarchies that affect gender, particularly race and class. Also see: <https://www.law.ufl.edu/faculty/nancy-e-dowd>

Ann C. McGinley is William S. Boyd Professor of Law and Co-Director, UNLV Workplace Law Program. Her areas of expertise are Tort Law, Masculinities Theory and Law, Disability Discrimination Law, Gender and Law, Employment Discrimination Law, Employment Law, Arbitration. She is the author of: Masculinity at Work: Employment Discrimination through a Different Lens (2016) and Masculinities and the Law: A Multidimensional Approach (2012) (with Frank Rudy Cooper). Also see: <https://law.unlv.edu/faculty/ann-mcginley>